

Columbiana County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society

The Columbiana County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society was organized in 1975 and currently has 200 members nationwide. It is dedicated to preserving all County records. Currently the CCCOGS is working on copying and publishing Columbiana County Cemetery Inscriptions and collecting all available church and Bible records.

The Columbiana County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society utilizes the Ohio Room in the Salem Library as a repository for its collection of books and family histories. The CCCOGS also works with the Columbiana County Archival and Research Center located on 129 Market St. in Lisbon, Ohio, where they conduct "Beginning Genealogy" courses. The CCCOGS also offers staff research services by mail or e-mail.

Meetings are held on the second Wednesday of each month
(Excludes January and February).
